

Restoring the Paths - Healing the Land

Osyio' (Greetings) We give thanks to our Creator for wonderful partners and friends like you! It is because of your faithfulness and prayers that we are able to make available a new, powerful ministry tool to those in need of physical and emotional healing! The Healing In His Wings CD is now available free of charge. We have already sent one to all of our brothers and sisters on the reservations and to the Chaplains of our incarcerated First Nations brothers.

This project was a collaborated effort of four ministers from four different churches. It represents the Body of Christ coming together in unity like the early church described in the book of Acts. Some have already received healing and salvation from just listening to the testimonies, healing scriptures and original wind flute music.

The project name came from Malachi 4:2 which says "But for you who fear my name, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with Healing in His Wings.

And you will go free, leaping with joy like calves let out to pasture." NLT

Healing Evangelist Sandy Anthony shares her personal testimonies as well as healing scriptures she uses as foundational in her healing ministry.

This message is being received across denominational lines. We are not coming against anything you have been taught in the past. We are just giving you a new focus on what the Word of God says about your wellness.

If you were taught as a young child that a bucket would explode if you lowered it into a well of water, you might believe that until you became so thirsty that you were willing to try anything. Are you sick or hurting and ready to focus on something new? John 3:16 says "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

Have you been diagnosed with an incurable disease? Do you live in constant pain? Does your health issues make you feel condemned? John 3:17 goes on to say that "For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." (NKJV emp mine) That everlasting life is supposed to start right now--no condemnation!

I Samuel, Chapter 16 tells of a famous Hebrew King who trusted the words of his servants and music to bring healing. How much more should we trust the Word of God for our wellness!

Great Father Wants You Well!

In our last periodical we focused on now being the time to awaken to Creator God, Romans 13:11. Part of that awakening is awakening to the benefits of being a child of a most loving Father. A Great Father indeed! He wants us to be well!

The healing of the land starts with the healing of the land's people. To quote Pastor Ellson Bennett (Navajo) of Covenant of Faith Ministries: "When the people get healed, then the land can be healed because the people have authority over the land and they can command it to be made whole."

We just looked at the promise of John 3:17 that God did not send his Son to condemn us but through Him we might be saved. Even though the writers were Jewish, the original text of the New Testament was written in the Greek language (business language of those times). The word "saved" in John 3:17 comes from the Greek word "Sozo." Sozo is often translated "saved." We interpret that word to mean forgiveness and many have reduced "saved" to only mean forgiven. Sozo includes forgiveness, but goes much farther!

Sozo refers to the spirit, soul [mind, will and emotions] and body; and in that order. When you hear anyone referring to "body, soul, spirit," be aware that this is an incorrect order of priorities as evidenced by the Word of God and not related to Sozo or Shalom. (1 Thessalonians 5:23) God is a Spirit (John 4:24) and we are made in his image so our focus should always be on the Spirit first.

In fact, forgiveness is not even a part of this word's definition. Sozo means wholeness, very much like the Hebrew word "Shalom." It means to 1) save a suffering one (from perishing), i.e. one suffering from disease, to make well, heal, restore to health, deliver from peril, to be made whole! and 2) To preserve one who is in danger of destruction, to save or rescue.

We have witnessed our heavenly Father heal His people as they enter into worship in the presence of holiness, and in the power of the anointing of the Holy Ghost. We have seen deaf ears opened, bones straightened out, stage four cancer healed and several delivered from drug and alcohol addictions and the pains of childhood sexual assaults. As this report is being written, we just received word of a doctor's confirmation of a woman that was healed of MS and is now pregnant! Glory to God!

The First Nations people have long known that music glorifying Creator brings healing to the body and peace to the soul. For years folks have shared with me that the native wind flute music soothes their soul and they have received healing after listening to the “Maracle” Mohawk wind flute that I use.

The Healing in His Wings project uses music that is straight from Isaiah 58:12, which says: “...thou shall be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.” The music on this recording is not only to prepare the hearts of the listener to receive healing from God’s word, but also to serve as a bridge over the breach between the First Nations and the Anglo cultures.

We are honoring the First Nations music and its healing power while gently blending traditional hymns with a keyboard. Our anointed keyboard player was integral in helping arrange all of the songs and we are indebted to Sherry McGraw for her gifts and labor of love in this project.

This recording will not only bring physical and emotional healing to the multitudes but our prayer is that it will also serve as a bridge to reaching a most precious resource we have on Americas First Nations reservations. They are the “first seed” to this land. Why is the first seed so important? Because they are the most likely to succeed! Blessings!

We want to thank our Mohawk Brother Jonathan Maracle, director of Broken Walls Ministries for his support and for his anointed flutes! Below is a picture of his flutes that I used in our recordings. His flutes are available on his website at www.brokenwalls.com or you can contact our website for information. Brother Jonathan also has many anointed Cds available and you will be blessed by Jonathan and the Broken Walls band.
