

Redefine Your Reality

syio! (Greetings) “Beloved I wish above all things that you prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers.” 3 John 2. Our prayer for you is the same as the Apostle John wrote in this verse. Notice that he wishes above all things that you have health in your body, health in your soul, and prosperity in your secular affairs. These three things are so necessary to the comforts of life. Every observant believer has the right to expect each of these blessings.

Are you suffering from sickness, afflictions, relationship or financial problems? Do you feel cursed at times? Here is some good news: observe that Jesus has redeemed us from these curses! Galatians 3:13-14 says “Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.” (emphasis mine)

Yes, prosperity is a blessing of Abraham as described in Deut 28:1-14. Psalms 35:27 also says that the Lord gets pleasure from the prosperity of his servant and likewise, does not get pleasure from our adversity! Praise the Lord!

The Christian walk is one that requires a daily renewing of the mind. To “redefine reality” is having an open mind with a view to change. Allow the Holy Spirit to teach you these truths (John 16:13). Jesus told us in Matthew 6:33 “But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” The Greek word for “seek” here means to research, meditate and strive after. When we research, meditate and strive after the things of God, then all “things” will be added to us.

The world’s definition of prosperity is financial power, political power, social favor and military power and greed. However, the Christian believer should have a different definition of this word.

We must redefine “prosperity” as “the ability to use God’s ability and power to meet the needs of mankind—regardless of what those needs may be.”

The blessings that Jesus died for reveals that God is a good God (Romans 2:4) and wants His children to be blessed, not unlike the way we want our children to be healthy, happy and successful in life!

Let us encourage you to redefine your reality by meditating on the blessings of Abraham as described in Deuteronomy 28:1-14. We pray that all of our partners and friends may have success in the works of their hands and their plans of life. Jesus loves you and so do we!

Fear of Man

Have you been delivered from people?

By Chaplain Chari Bouse

“The fear of man brings a snare, But whoever trusts in the Lord shall be safe.” Proverbs 29:25

One statement from God can change your life forever. This statement may shock some and offend others, however, if you have an “open mind with a view to change” then this statement will set you free!

The scripture above means that when we fear only God, nothing can steal our Joy! Then we can be bold as a lion! However, if we fear rejection from our friends or family, we will never be free to be our true selves. Those who fear or meditate on what others think of them are in emotional bondage; their soul is not prospering! Only those trusting in God's opinion alone can be “delivered from people.”

The early church had real persecution. They were put in chains, prison and even put to death for their boldness in sharing their faith. In our Western society, we cannot relate to this; however, the fear of man is still very real. The fear of losing friends or fear of what others think is just as powerful!

The devil knows your fears, too. The easiest way for him to stop your success in life is to use a person you respect to stop you from doing what God has told you to do! The voices of man are loud. The voice of the Holy Spirit is a still, small voice that has a calming strength to it. Which voice are you meditating on? If you have been given a dream or vision about your future, do not seek the “opinion” of others. Listen and act upon that still, small voice—the voice of God Himself!

Now to the statement that will set you free: “Your success in life, your destiny, is directly connected to the church you are attending.” Yes, you can stunt God’s plan for your life by going to the wrong church. The Holy Spirit will lead you to where God wants you to be planted IF you will trust that still, small voice. Most believers go to a church because it is the one that their family or friends attend. Don’t be surprised if your friends are not as committed to God as you are and don’t let their doubt alter your faith.

Your destiny is directly connected to the church you are attending.

Allow the Holy Spirit to lead you to your “home” church and you “shall be like a tree Planted by the rivers of water, That brings forth its fruit in its season, Whose leaf also shall not wither; And whatever he does shall prosper.” Psalms 1:3. There is that word “prosper” again. God wants you to prosper so that you can help others!

When you redefine your reality by putting God’s Word first, you will be on the path to a peaceful, successful life, spirit, soul and body! You will be delivered from people! You will go from being pitiful to powerful! You will be the consoler and not the consoled. You will have victory in every area of your life!

Now that is Good News! Amen!

Healing of the Nations

Pastors Ellson and Debra Bennett just completed their Healing of the Nations Believer's rally on the Navajo reservation near Hidden Springs Mission, Arizona. It was a time of restoration, healing, prophetic music and fellowship! Part of this strategic location includes the proximity of the Hopi reservation where some of the attendees stayed in motels and they were nice motels, I might add!

The Hopi and Navajo historic dealings with the United States are not only complex and tragic, but with the help of the government, have created land and other disputes among these two tribes. Hence, "Healing of the Nations" is a very prophetic name for a believers rally in this area! The famous Friday morning Hopi flea market in Tuba City, AZ is a must see! We observed a respect for the culture with a hint of prosperity for the future!

Prosperity has come to the Navajo Nation! God's kind of prosperity! One that will use God's ability and power to meet the needs of their people—no matter what those needs may be!

The Dine' Future

The Bennetts' visions for the Eagle's Rest Youth facilities are one step closer to reality! This project will allow native youth to be trained in not just the things of God but will enable them to prosper in every area of life while still respecting their heritage and culture.

Covenant of Faith Ministries broke ground in August and have the first building almost ready for occupation. We encourage our partners to pray about sowing a seed into their Eagle's Rest Youth project. Donations may be made out to "Covenant of Faith Ministries", 925 W. Baseline Rd., Suite 105-M5, Tempe, AZ 85283, or made online at www.CovenantOfFaithaz.org. God Bless!
